REVIEW OF OPERATIONS

The Group has been operating under a challenging environment during the financial year 2007. Despite the increased in export sales during the financial year under review, the increase in prices of certain materials and appreciation of the Malaysian Ringgit against the US Dollar have affected the Group's ability to maintain the profit margin. The Board implemented a series of strategies to boost its revenues coupled with internal savings in the production and operation costs in order to mitigate the profit margin erosion.

The Board continues to focus on higher margin products to improve its ability to contribute more significantly to the Group. The new gummy product, "Sour+" has been performing well and will continue to attract a high demand from consumers. The Board keeps up its goals to further strengthen the Group's revenue and profitability by applying more aggressive marketing strategies, embarking in product awareness, brand building, re-imaging of various products and introducing of new offerings in both local and export markets.

In November 2007, Coco (Fujian) Foods Company Limited, the joint venture company between Cocoaland Industry Sdn. Bhd. with Labixiaoxin Investments Company Limited has commenced its operations in Fujian, China. A factory has been set up and now underway its full production capacity. The Joint Venture Company has produced a variety of products under the brand name of LaBiXiaoXin and is receiving favorable response.

To continue enhancing the growth in the Group, the Board is planning to expand its business by introducing a new range of healthy beverages with the flavor of green tea and fresh juices which offer greater taste and healthier life to consumers. These products are expected to be in the market in 2008.

PROSPECTS

Moving forward, the Group expects that demand for its products, both locally and internationally to remain strong. With the recent penetration into the market of China and Vietnam, the outlook remains positive. However, the instability of the economy in the United States will likely to cause an impact on the overall performance of the Group.

The Board will strive to deliver improved performance in year 2008.

CORPORATE SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY

The Board acknowledges that it has a responsibility to the employees, the shareholders and the communities in which they do business as well as to the environment. In line with this the Board has implemented various corporate social responsibilities initiatives to ensure responsible practices are carried out in all areas of our businesses. On the community front, the Group supports a wide range of community-based campaign on helping the less fortunate such as donations and gifts giving to the communities and local schools. The Group has also conducted a public seminar in relation to personal development and corporate ethic. On the environmental front, we adhere to stringent environmental best practices.

On behalf of the Board of Directors, I would like to record our heartfelt gratitude and appreciation to our shareholders, customers, business associates, financiers and the various government agencies for their continued support and confidence to the Group. Our appreciation also accorded to the Management team and employees at all levels for their hard work, dedication and commitment to the Group.

Notes to the Financial Statements

31st December 2007

1. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Unless otherwise stated, the following significant accounting policies have been used consistently in dealing with items which are considered material in relation to the financial statements.

1.1 Basis of Preparation

The financial statements of the Group and of the Company have been prepared under the historical cost convention except as disclosed in this summary of significant policies.

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with applicable MASB Approved Accounting Standards in Malaysia for Entities Other Than Private Entities and the provisions of the Companies Act, 1965 requires the directors to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reported financial year. Although these estimates are based on the directors' best knowledge of current events and actions, actual results could differ from those estimates.

1.2 Basis of Consolidation

The subsidiary companies have been consolidated using the merger method of accounting. Under this method, the differences between the purchase consideration and nominal value of the share capital of the subsidiary companies acquired are taken to reserve arising from merger or deficit arising from merger. The deficit, if any, are written off against revaluation reserve and retained profit in the financial statements of the subsidiary companies acquired.

Standard on FRS 3 "Business Combinations" states that all business combinations shall be accounted for by applying the purchase method. However, the Group has adopted the exemption allowed to apply FRS 3 on a prospective basis. Accordingly, business combinations entered into prior to 1st January, 2007, have not been restated to comply with this Standard.

All significant intercompany transactions and balances are eliminated on consolidation.

1.3 Property, Plant and Equipment and Depreciation

All items of property, plant and equipment are initially recorded at cost. Subsequent costs are included in the asset's carrying amount or recognised as a separate asset, as appropriate, only when it is probable that future economic benefits associated with the item will flow to the Group and the cost of the item can be measured reliably. The carrying amount of the replaced part is derecognised. All other repairs and maintenance are charged to the income statement during the financial period in which they are incurred.

Subsequent to recognition, property, plant and equipment except for freehold land are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and any accumulated impairment losses.

Freehold lands and buildings of the Group have not been revalued since they were first revalued in December, 2003. The directors have not adopted a policy of regular revaluation of such assets and no later valuation has been recorded. As permitted under the transitional provisions of IAS 16 (Revised): Property, Plant and Equipment, these assets continue to be stated at their December, 2003 valuation less accumulated depreciation. Any accumulated depreciation as at the revaluation date is eliminated against the gross carrying amount of the asset and the amount is restated to the revalued amount of the asset.

1. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (cont'd)1.3 Property, Plant and Equipment and Depreciation (cont'd)

Freehold lands are not depreciated as they have infinite useful lives.

Depreciation on other property, plant and equipment is calculated on the straight line method to write off their costs to their residual value over their estimated useful lives at the following annual rates:-

Freehold buildings	Over remaining useful lives of between 28 to 48 years
Motor vehicles	20%
Plant and machinery	10%
Office equipment	10%
Furniture and fittings	10%
Warehouse equipment	10%
Electrical fittings	10%
Renovation	10%
Science lab equipment	10%
Factory equipment	10%

The residual value, useful life and depreciation method are reviewed at each financial year end to ensure that the amount, method and period of depreciation are consistent with previous estimates and the expected pattern of consumption of the future economic benefits embodied in the items of property, plant and equipment.

An item of property, plant and equipment is derecognised upon disposal or when no future economic benefits are expected from its use or disposal. The difference between the net disposal proceeds, if any and the net carrying amount is recognised in income statement.

1.4 Leasesi) Classification

A lease is recognised as a finance lease if it transfers substantially to the Group all the risks and rewards incidental to ownership. Leases of land and buildings are classified as operating or finance leases in the same way as leases of other assets and the land and buildings elements of a lease of land and buildings are considered separately for the purposes of lease classification. All leases that do not transfer substantially all the risks and rewards are classified as operating leases

ii) Finance Leases

Assets acquired by way of finance leases are stated at an amount equal to the lower of their fair values and the present value of the minimum lease payments at the inception of the leases, less accumulated depreciation and impairment losses. The corresponding liability is included in the balance sheet as borrowings. In calculating the present value of the minimum lease payments, the discount factor used is the interest rate implicit in the lease, when it is practicable to determine, otherwise, the Group's or Company's incremental borrowing rate is used. Any initial direct costs are also added to the carrying amount of such assets.

1. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (cont'd)

1.4 Leases (cont'd)

ii) Finance Leases (cont'd)

Lease payments are apportioned between the finance costs and the reduction of the outstanding liability. Finance costs, which represent the difference between the total leasing commitments and the fair value of the assets acquired, are recognised in income statement over the term of the relevant lease so as to produce a constant periodic rate of charge on the remaining balance of the obligations for each accounting period.

The depreciation policy for leased assets is in accordance with that for depreciable property, plant and equipment as described in Note 1.3.

iii) Operating Leases

Operating lease payments are recognised as an expense on a straight-line basis over the term of the relevant lease. The aggregate benefit of incentives provided by the lessor is recognised as a reduction of rental expense over the lease term on a straight-line basis.

In the case of a lease of land and buildings, the minimum lease payments or the up-front payments made are allocated, whenever necessary, between the land and the buildings elements in proportion to the relative fair values for leasehold interests in the land element and buildings element of the lease at the inception of the lease. The up-front payment represents prepaid lease payments and are amortised on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

1.5 Associated Company

Associated company is defined as a company in which the Group has a long term equity interest of between 20% - 50% and is in a position to exercise significant influence over, and participate in, the financial and operating policy decisions of the associated company.

1.6 Investments

Investments in unquoted shares, are stated at cost less accumulated impairment losses, if any.

1.7 Inventories

Inventories are valued at the lower of cost and net realisable value. In general, cost is determined on first-in, first-out basis and comprise purchase cost and other incidental costs including transport and handling costs. In the case of finished goods, costs include all direct expenditure and production overheads based on the normal level of activity.

Net realisable value is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business less selling expenses. In arriving at net realisable value, due allowance is made for all obsolete, slow moving or defective inventories.

1. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (cont'd)

1.8 Impairment of Assets

The carrying values of assets other than inventories are reviewed for impairment when there is an indication that the assets might be impaired. Impairment is measured by comparing the carrying values of the assets with their recoverable amounts. An impairment loss is charged to the income statement immediately unless the asset is carried at revalued amount. Any impairment loss of a revalued asset is treated as a revaluation decrease to the extent of previously recognised revaluation surplus for the same asset.

Subsequent increase in the recoverable amount of an asset is treated as reversal of the previous impairment loss and is recognised to the extent of the carrying amount of the asset that would have been determined (net of depreciation and amortisation) had no impairment loss been recognised. The reversal is recognised in the income statement immediately, unless the asset is carried at revalued amount. A reversal of an impairment loss on a revalued asset is credited directly to revaluation surplus. However, to the extent that an impairment loss on the same revalued asset was previously recognised as an expense in the income statement, a reversal of that impairment loss is recognised as income in the income statement.

1.9 Income Tax

Income tax on the profit for the year comprises current and deferred income tax liabilities. Current income tax liabilities is the expected amount of income taxes payable in respect of the taxable profit for the year and is measured using the tax rates that have been enacted at the balance sheet date.

Deferred income tax liabilities is provided for, using the liability method, on temporary differences at the balance sheet date between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts in the financial statements. In principle, deferred income tax liabilities are recognised for all taxable temporary differences and deferred income tax assets are recognised for all deductible temporary differences, unused tax losses and unused tax credits to the extent that it is probable that taxable profit will be available against which the deductible temporary differences, unused tax losses and unused tax credits can be utilised.

A deferred income tax asset is recognised only to the extent that it is probable that taxable profit will be available against which the deductible temporary differences can be utilised. The carrying amount of a deferred income tax asset is reviewed at each balance sheet date. If it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profit will be available to allow the benefit of part or all of that deferred income tax asset to be utilised, the carrying amount of the deferred income tax asset will be reduced accordingly. When it becomes probable that sufficient taxable profit will be available, such reduction will be reversed to the extent of the taxable profit.

1.10 Receivables

Receivables are carried at anticipated realisable values. Bad debts are written off when identified. Allowance is made for doubtful debts based on a review of all outstanding amounts as at the balance sheet date.

1.11 Payables

Payables are stated at cost which is the fair value of the consideration to be paid in the future for goods and services received.

1.12 Provisions

Provisions are recognised when there is a present obligation, legal or constructive as a result of a past event, and it is probable that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation and a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation. Provisions are reviewed at each balance sheet date and adjusted to reflect the current best estimate.

1.13 Hire-Purchase

Property, plant and equipment acquired under hire-purchase are capitalised and are depreciated on the same basis as owned assets as stated in Note 1.3 and the corresponding obligations relating to the remaining capital payments are treated as liabilities. Finance charges are charged to the income statement over the period of the plan and accounted for using the sum of digits method (Rule 78 method).

1.14 Interest-Bearing Borrowings

Interest-bearing bank loans and overdrafts are recorded at the amount of proceeds received, net of transaction costs.

Borrowing costs directly attributable to the acquisition of property, plant and equipment are capitalised as part of the cost of those assets, until such time as the assets are ready for their intended use. All other borrowing costs are charged to the income statement as an expense in the period in which they are incurred.

1.15 Share Capital

Ordinary shares are recorded at the nominal value and proceeds in excess of the nominal value of shares issued, if any, are accounted for as share premium. Both ordinary shares and share premium are classified as equity. Cost incurred directly attributable to the issuance of the shares are accounted for as a deduction from share premium, otherwise it is charged to the income statement.

Dividends to shareholders are recognised in equity in the period in which they are declared or approved by shareholders at general meeting.

1.16 Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents consists of cash in hand, bank balances and short term and fixed deposits with licensed banks, net of outstanding bank overdrafts which have an insignificant risk of changes in value.

1.17 Financial Instruments

Financial instruments are recognised in the balance sheet when the Group have become a party to the contractual provisions of the instruments. The particular recognition methods adopted are disclosed in the individual accounting policy statements associated with each item.

Financial instruments are classified as liabilities or equity in accordance with the substance of the contractual arrangement. Interest, dividends, gains and losses relating to a financial instrument classified as liability are reported as expense or income. Distributions to holders of financial instruments classified as equity are charged directly to equity. Financial instruments are offset when the Group have a legally enforceable right to set off the recognised amounts and intends either to settle on a net basis, or to realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously.
