CHAIRMAN'S STATEMENT

DEAR VALUED SHAREHOLDERS,

ON BEHALF OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF NWP HOLDINGS BERHAD, IT GIVES ME GREAT PLEASURE TO PRESENT THE ANNUAL REPORT AND THE AUDITED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS OF NWP HOLDINGS BERHAD GROUP (NWP OR THE GROUP) FOR THE FINANCIAL YEAR ENDED 31 AUGUST 2010.

ECONOMIC REVIEW

The year under review continued to be challenging, as the instability in the global financial markets which has spread to Europe has made it more difficult for export oriented business. Despite the weak global scenario, I am pleased to announce that NWP Holdings Berhad performed credibly as revenues increased due to steps taken during the year to improve overall performance.

GROUP FINANCIAL PERFORMANCE

During the financial year under review, the Group registered an increase in revenue of 360% to RM23.33 million compared with RM6.47 million in 2009. The construction sector which the Group embarked into during the year contributed RM3.05 million in turnover. The Group recorded a loss for the year of RM6.29 million compared to a loss of RM22.65 million in 2009 due to low margins and high operational costs. The construction sector however contributed RM0.15 million in profits. The prevailing global economic uncertainty continues to weigh heavily on the Group's performance and continued steps are being taken to trim operational overheads for the timber division. With signs of recovery in the global economy, turnover is expected to increase in the next financial year.

PROSPECTS

The prospect of the next financial year is seen to be challenging for the Group as costs remain high and prices for moulded products remain competitive. Sales are expected to improve but margins may erode due to very competitive pricing from competitors in the region.

As for the construction business which the Group has embarked into during the year which has contributed profits, steps are being taken to expand this business, with a view of embarking into property development.

The Group will continue its efforts in improving its timber business and to further expand its construction business and also to venture into the property development sector.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

The Group is committed to continuously develop and enhance its principles on corporate governance, based on the recommendations of Best Practices as contained in the Malaysian Code on Corporate Governance, for the protection and enhancement of stakeholders' value and performance of the Group.

DIVIDENDS

In view of the loss suffered during the year, and to preserve cash flow for future growth and planned diversification, the Board does not recommend any dividend payment in respect of the current financial year.

APPRECIATION

On behalf of the Board of Directors, we take this opportunity to express our sincere gratitude to the management and staff of the Group for their dedicated and diligent services to the Company. We also wish to express our utmost appreciation to the Regulatory Authorities, all business associates and shareholders for their invaluable support and cooperation.

Thank you.

In the Company's separate financial statements, investments in subsidiaries are stated at cost less impairment losses. On disposal of such investments, the difference between net disposal proceeds and their carrying amounts is included in profit or loss.

(d) Basis of Consolidation

The consolidated financial statements incorporate the financial statements of the Company and its subsidiary companies made up to the end of the financial year.

Subsidiary companies are consolidated from the date of acquisition, being the date on which the Group obtains control and continue to be consolidated until the date that such control ceases. Uniform accounting policies are adopted in the consolidated financial statements for transactions and other events in similar circumstances.

Intragroup transactions, balances and resulting unrealised profits and losses from intragroup transactions are eliminated in full on consolidation and the consolidated financial statements reflects external transaction only.

Acquisition of subsidiary companies are accounted for by applying the purchase method. The purchase method of accounting involves allocating of the acquisition to the fair value of the identifiable assets, liabilities and contingent liabilities assumed at the date of acquisition. The cost of an acquisition is measured as the aggregate of the fair values, at the date of exchange, of the assets given, liabilities incurred or assumed, and equity instruments issued, plus any costs directly attributable to the acquisition.

Non-controlling interest represents the portion of profit or loss and net assets in subsidiaries not held by the Group. It is measured at the non-controlling's share of the fair value of the subsidiaries' identifiable assets and liabilities at the acquisition date and the non-controlling's share of changes in the subsidiaries' equity since then. Separate disclosure is made for non-controlling interest.

Any excess of the cost of acquisition over the Group's interest in the net fair value of the identifiable assets, liabilities and contingent liabilities represents goodwill which will be dealt with according to FRS 138.

2. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)

(e) Property, Plant and Equipment

(i) Measurement Basis

Property, plant and equipment are stated at cost or valuation less accumulated depreciation and impairment losses if any. The cost of property, plant and equipment comprises their purchase prices and any directly attributable costs in bringing the property, plant and equipment to working condition.

It is the Company's policy to appraise its properties at least once in every five years by independent valuers based on open market value. Any increase arising from valuation is credited to equity as a revaluation reserve. Any decrease in value is first offset against an increase on the earlier valuation in respect of the same property and is thereafter charged to the income statement. Upon the disposal of the revalued assets, the amounts in revaluation reserve relating to those assets are transferred directly to retained profits.

Property, plant and equipment retired from active use and held for disposals are stated at the lower of net book value and net realisable value. Gain or loss on disposal of property, plant and equipment is determined by references to its carrying amount and is taken to the income statement in the financial year in which it was disposed.

(ii) Depreciation

Freehold land and asset under construction are not depreciated.

All other property, plant and equipment are depreciated on a straight line basis to write off the cost of the assets to their residual values over their estimated useful lives with full depreciation in the month of acquisition and no depreciation in the month of disposal. The principal annual rates used are as follows :-

	%
Buildings and quarters	2
Camp staff quarters	33
Motor vehicles, plant and machinery	10 - 20
Tools and equipment and factory equipment	10
Office renovation, furniture and fittings, electrical installation and office equipment	10
Road	10

(f) Inventories

Inventories are stated at the lower of cost and net realisable value.

Cost is determined on a first-in-first-out basis. The cost of trading goods comprises the original purchase prices plus costs incurred in bringing the goods to their present locations and conditions. The cost of raw materials comprises the original purchase prices plus costs incurred in bringing the inventories to their present locations and conditions. The cost of work-in-progress and finished goods comprise the cost of raw materials, direct charges and a proportion of production overheads.

Net realisable value is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business less the estimated costs of completion and the estimated costs necessary to make the sale.

(g) Receivables

Receivables are stated at nominal value as reduced by the appropriate allowances for estimated irrecoverable amounts. Known bad debts are written off and allowance is made for any specific receivables considered to be doubtful of collection.

(h) Payables and Provisions

Payables are carried at cost which is the fair value of the consideration to be paid in the future for the goods and services received.

Provisions are recognised when the Company has a present legal or constructive obligation as a result of past events, when it is probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation, and when a reliable estimate of the amount can be made.

(i) Borrowings

Borrowings are stated at their face values. Interest incurred on borrowings is charged to the income statement as expense as and when incurred.

(j) Leases

- Operating Leases – The Group as lessee

Operating leases are leases where the lessor effectively retains substantially all the risks and benefits of ownership of the leased item. Operating lease expenses are recognised in the income statement as incurred over the period of the respective leases, which is normally on a straight-line basis.

- Finance Leases – The Group as lessee

Assets acquired by way of hire purchase or finance lease are stated at an amount equal to the lower of their fair values and the present value of the minimum lease payments at the inception of the leases, less accumulated depreciation and impairment losses. The corresponding liability is included in the balance sheet as borrowings. In calculating the present value of the minimum lease payments, the discount factor used is the interest rate implicit in the lease, when it is practicable to determine; otherwise, the Company's incremental borrowing rate is used. Any initial direct costs are also added to the carrying amount of such assets.

Lease payments are apportioned between the finance costs and the reduction of the outstanding liability. Finance costs, which represent the difference between the total leasing commitments and the fair value of the assets acquired, are recognised in the income statement over the term of the relevant lease so as to produce a constant periodic rate of charge on the remaining balance of the obligations for each accounting period.

- Prepaid Land Lease Payments

In the case of a lease of land and building, the minimum lease payments or the up-front payments made on entering into or acquiring a leasehold land are accounted as prepaid lease payments and are amortised on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

Leasehold land of the Group is amortised over the period of the respective leases which range from 54 to 88 years.

(k) Foreign Currencies

Transactions in foreign currencies are translated to Ringgit Malaysia at rates of exchange ruling at the dates of the transaction. All exchange differences are taken to the income statement.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

(k) Foreign Currencies (continued)

Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies at the balance sheet date are translated to Ringgit Malaysia at the foreign exchange rate ruling at that date.

All translated differences arising are taken to the income statement.

The principal closing rates used in translation of foreign currency amounts are as follows:-

Foreign Currencies	2010 RM	2009 RM
1 Euro	3.9460	5.1000
1 Singapore Dollar	2.2890	2.4785
1 US Dollar	3.0970	3.5710
1 Australian Dollar	2.7840	2.9758
100 Yen	3.8120	3.8120

(l) Impairment of Assets

At each balance sheet date, the Group reviews the carrying amounts of its assets other than inventories and deferred tax assets, to determine whether there is any indication that those assets have suffered an impairment loss. If such indication exists, impairment is measured by comparing the carrying values of the assets with their recoverable amounts. Recoverable amount is the higher of net selling price and value in use, which is measured by reference to discounted future cash flows. Recoverable amounts are estimated for individual assets or, if it is not possible, for the cash-generating unit to which the assets belong.

An impairment loss is charged to the income statement immediately, unless the asset is carried at revalued amount. Any impairment loss of a revalue asset is treated as a revaluation decrease to the extent of any previously recognised revaluation surplus for the same asset.

Reversal of impairment losses recognised in prior years is recorded when there is an indication that the impairment losses recognised for the asset no longer exist or have decreased. The reversal is recognised to the extent of the carrying amount of the asset that would have been determined (net of amortisation and depreciation) had no impairment loss been recognised. The reversal is recognised in the income statement immediately, unless the asset is carried at revalued amount. A reversal of an impairment loss on a revalued asset is credited directly to revaluation surplus. However, to the extent that an impairment loss on the same revalued asset was previously recognised as an expense in the income statement, a reversal of that impairment loss is recognised as an income in the income statement.

(m) Income Recognition

- (i) Revenue from sale of goods is recognised when the significant risks and rewards of ownership of the goods have been passed to the buyer.
- (ii) Revenue from logging and sawmilling activities is recognised as and when the services are performed.
- (iii) Interest income is recognised on a time proportion basis that takes into account the effective yield on the asset.
- (iv) Rental income is recognised on received basis.
- (v) Revenue from construction contracts are recognised based on the stage of completion method.

(n) Income Tax

Income tax on the profit or loss for the financial year comprises current and deferred tax. Current tax is the expected amount of income taxes payable in respect of the taxable profits for the financial year and is measured using the tax rates that have been enacted at the balance sheet date.

Deferred tax is recognised using the liability method for all temporary differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities and their tax bases at the balance sheet date. Deferred tax liabilities are recognised for all taxable temporary differences. Deferred tax assets are recognised for all deductible temporary differences, unused tax losses and unused tax credits to the extent that it is probable that future taxable profits will be available against which the deductible temporary differences, unused tax losses and unused tax credits can be utilised. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are not recognised on temporary difference arising from goodwill or negative goodwill or from the initial recognition of an asset or liability in a transaction which is not a business combination and at the time of the transaction, affects neither accounting profits nor taxable profits.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured at the tax rates that are expected to apply to the period when the assets are realised or the liabilities are settled. The carrying amount of deferred tax asset is reviewed at each balance sheet date and is reduced to the extent that it becomes probable that sufficient future taxable profits will be available.

Deferred tax is recognised in the income statement, except when it arises from a transaction which is recognised directly in equity. In this case, the deferred tax is charged or credited directly in equity. When the deferred tax arises from a business combination that is an acquisition, it is included in the resulting goodwill or negative goodwill.

(o) Employee Benefits

(i) Short Term Employee Benefits

Wages, salaries, paid annual leave and sick leave, bonuses and non-monetary benefits are accrued in the period in which the associated services are rendered by the employees of the Company.

(ii) Defined Contribution Plans

The Company's contribution to defined contribution plans are charged to the income statements in the period to which they relate. Once the contributions have been paid, the Company has no further payment obligations.

(p) Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash comprises cash in hand, at bank and demand deposits. Cash equivalents are short term, highly liquid investments that are readily convertible to known amounts of cash and which are subject to insignificant risk of changes in value. For the purpose of the cash flow statement, cash and cash equivalents are presented net of bank overdrafts.

(q) Deferred Expenditure

Capital expenditure incurred which are related to a specific project or contract are deferred and amortised or depreciated according to the respective estimated duration of the project or contract, once the project or contract commences. Should the project or contract be terminated earlier, any balances that have not been amortised or depreciated are immediately charged as an expense to the income statement.

The Group operates within clearly defined guidelines that are approved by the Board of Directors and the Group's policy is not to engage in speculative transactions.

The main areas of financial risks faced by the Group and the policy in respect of the major areas of treasury activity are set out as follows :-

This is the risk that a counter party is unable to pay its debts or meet its obligations.

The credit risk attributed to receivables is mitigated by the application of internal credit review procedures.

(d) Liquidity and Cash Flow Risks
